Glitzy Girls Magazine was founded in 2009, after years of thinking about creating a publication covering the events of our community we jumped into this project with both feet.

This magazine can serve as an insider's guide to what's hot in the Fashion & Pageant World right now - to what's going on in the contestants lives when they are not competing. Our goal is to provide the reader with a resource for information as well as entertainment.

Our family has been a part of the pageant community for over eighteen years, myself as a competitor, as well as my parents as photographers.

As anyone knows once you have been bitten by the pageant bug there is no turning back. I can tell you from my personal experience that by entering pageants it has made me a self confident individual in addition to a well rounded young adult.

My pageant experience has opened up many doors for me in modeling and television. ( You can read my story inside for more details.)

My parents are helping me with this new venture. They both have vast experiences in the "ins and out" of running a successful business as they owned and operated their own engineering business for over 20 years.

Our magazine is the only true source for the "real and genuine stories" on pageantry. We do not edit or change the stories for better ratings.

People tell us they love the magazines positive reflection on pageantry, giving us glowing comments not only on the quality and beautiful imagery, but they really like the personal feel of the stories from within the pageant community. We are very excited about the positive feedback we have received from people on the outside looking in.

We feel we have accomplished what we set out to do from the onset of the publication, and that is to show the world of pageantry in the best light possible, and to share the experience with those who are intrigued by the glitz and glamour of pageants.

The magazine you are about to view is a mosaic of stories and fashion shoots from past issues as a reflection of some of our staff's favorite items up to now in this special Reflection's Issue.

As always all of our models will be current and former pageant contestants, we give pageant girls opportunities to model for top designers in their national and global advertising campaigns.

Some of our models have been picked up as exclusive models for designers. We wish them continued successes.

Currently we have subscribers from around the world, this past week we even picked up a subscriber from Beirut, Lebanon. (People in Europe and the Middle East - love American pageantry!)

Happy New Year from me and the entire Glitzy Girls Staff.
