With this issue, it marks the 5th Anniversary of Glitzy Girls Magazine first issue release in the Spring of 2010. (Special Anniversary Edition coming this summer). In 2009 we laid the foundation of what we envisioned Glitzy Girls Magazine to become. It has flourished into the community magazine we hoped for, bringing the readers stories about each other's lives outside of pageantry as well feature stories about the directors and of course Mr. Tim and other vendors.

We've cover subjects such as bullying, movie and book reviews, in depth stories on many subjects that we feel our readers will find interesting. And of course the mainstay of every issue is our Fashion Shoots, shooting in states across the US for designers whom advertise in the magazine. The designers are given the disk and they use the images not just within the pages of our publication, but other multi-media sources.

We are giving girls the experience of modeling and tear sheets for use in their modeling endeavors. In many cases the designers let the girls keep the clothing they are modeling. In addition to this they end up with a disk full of images shot during the fashion shoot.

Within these five years we also launched our very popular Couture Pageant Event, which has a very unique format, from receiving your outfit from us (and yours to keep) to wear for the main event, "Couture Wear". They only thing you need to do is accessorize to show your personal style and personality. (what makes this event even more special is - that we have actual designers on hand as judges), They just love to see how real girls choose to wear their clothing.

At the Couture Pageant we also have as optional Events: Natural and/or Glitz Beauty, and two Outfit Of Choice Events. You may enter as many photos as you wish, however only one can count toward your supreme score. Other photos can count for overalls and jackpots.

After holding this event in the Northeast for the past two years, we've decided it was now time to move it to the venue we had always planned on hosting it at - ATLANTA.

As everyone knows the south is the heart and soul of pageantry, being a pageant magazine we need to be in the in the heart of it.

We are happy to say that so many of our Northern Glitzy Girls loved the events so much they have registered for the Atlanta event, we are so honored for this compliment, as many northern girls do not venture out of the area.

To those who are new to this system, I can tell you this is so much more than a pageant. As soon as you walk into the ballroom you will see you are at something completely different than you have experienced before.
